§

SITTING IN AUSTIN,

LICENSE No. 1452

TRAVIS COUNTY, TEXAS

AGREED ORDER

BE IT REMEMBERED that on the date approved and entered below came to be considered the allegations against Luis R. Venegas, DPM. By letter dated June 7, 2005 the staff of the Texas State Board of Podiatric Medical Examiners (the "Board") gave preliminary notice to Dr. Venegas of its intent to investigate complaints, concerns or reports filed against him. Dr. Venegas was duly notified of the allegations against him and was given the opportunity to present information in rebuttal and to show compliance with the law. Dr. Venegas has cooperated with the staff of the Board.

By his signature on this Order, and upon acceptance and entry of this Order by the Board, Dr. Venegas does hereby waive his right to an administrative hearing before the State Office of Administrative Hearings, and judicial review of this Order. Dr. Venegas understands that he has the option, before signing this Agreed Order, to participate in a contested case hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act.

The Board and Dr. Venegas, in order to avoid the expense, delay and uncertainty of a hearing, have agreed to the entry of an order dispensing with the need for further action in this matter. Dr. Venegas agrees to this Order for the purpose of resolving this proceeding only. The Board makes the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and enters this order:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Dr. Venegas is licensed as a podiatric physician in the State of Texas (License Number 1452) to practice podiatric medicine and is therefore subject to the jurisdiction of the Board, the Podiatric Medical Practice Act of Texas and the rules of the Board.
2. Complaints were filed against Dr. Venegas, and he was provided with notice of the complaints and with an opportunity to respond to the complaints, and to show compliance with the law.
3. Dr. Venegas, as a podiatrist licensed in the State of Texas, must comply with the provisions of the Podiatric Medical Practice Act of Texas, the Board rules and Board orders.
4. Dr. Venegas administered hyperbaric oxygen therapy prior to having the requisite Board certification.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Dr. Venegas is required to follow the provisions of the Podiatric Medical Practice Act, Texas Occupations Code, §202.001, et. seq., and the associated Rules of the Board, 22 Tex. Administrative Code § 371.1, et. seq.
2. Texas Occupations Code, §202.001(4) provides that, "Podiatry" means the treatment of or offer to treat any disease, disorder, physical injury, deformity, or ailment of the human foot by any system or method. The term includes podiatric medicine."
3. Texas Occupations Code, §202.253(a)(5) provides that, "the board may refuse to issue a license to practice podiatry to a person, for directly or indirectly violating or attempting to violate this chapter or a rule adopted under this chapter as a principal, accessory, or accomplice."
4. Texas Occupations Code, §202.501(a) provides that, "the Board shall revoke or suspend a license; place on probation a person whose license has been suspended, or reprimand a license holder for violating the law regulating the practice of podiatry or a rule adopted by the board."
5. Texas Occupations Code, §202.5015 provides that a license holder who engages in conduct described by Section 202.253 violates this chapter.
6. 22 Texas Administrative Code, §376.1(a)(1) provides that, "any podiatric physician who violates any provision of these rules, or any provision of the Act shall be at the discretion of the Board subject to the following penalties: cancellation, suspension, revocation, or probated cancellation, revocation, or suspension of the license to practice podiatric medicine."
7. The Findings Of Fact numbers 1 through 4 establish that Dr. Venegas violated:
(a) 22 Tex. Admin. Code §380.1(3), which provides in part: Prior to administering hyperbaric oxygen, a podiatric physician must have on file with the Texas State Board of Podiatric Medical Examiners documentation certifying compliance with the above requirements.
(b) Texas Occupations Code 202.253(a)(5) in that: he directly or indirectly violated or attempted to violate this chapter or a rule adopted under this chapter as a principal, accessory, or accomplice.

ORDER

1. Dr. Venegas shall pay a fine of $500.00 (Five Hundred Dollars and no/100) fully due and payable within 60 (sixty) days after the effective date of this Agreed Order.
2. Entry of this Order shall resolve any and all pending matters of investigations before the Board.
3. The terms of this Agreed Order, if accepted by the Board, become effective upon such acceptance.
4. If Dr. Venegas fully complies with the terms of the Agreed Order, the Board agrees not to bring any further disciplinary action regarding the facts that are the subject of this Order.
